Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1-19 have been allowed.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

As to claims 1-9, patentability resides, at least in part, in the combination of: a substrate processing apparatus, including at least one processing part with a plurality of processing elements, a control element for controlling the operation of the plurality of elements, wherein the activation and halt of the elements are controlled independently, a storage element, the apparatus being not only capable of executing a predetermined substrate processing with all of the plurality of elements but also capable of executing the predetermined substrate processing with only part of the plurality of processing elements, in further combination with the other limitations of base Claim 1.

As to 10-18, patentability resides, in a method of operating the claimed apparatus of Claims 1-9.

As to claim 19, patentability resides, in a program, which is installable in a computer for the claimed apparatus of Claims 1-9.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

3. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Yoshitake et al., Yamazaki et al., Kitamoto et al., Allen et al., Smith, Jr. et al., and Iwasaki disclose related art.
